

Administration Information

Test administrators must allow the full amount of time allotted for test sessions. While some students may finish before the time allotted for testing ends, this policy is in place to provide a fair environment for students who require all or most of the allotted time and to avoid pressuring any student to finish early.

Any student who has not finished by the end of the allotted time for an EOC session may continue working up to half the length of a typical school day.

Session Lengths by Grade Level and Subject
